SHERIFF EDWARD N. BONNER RELEASES THE FOLLOWING:

Victoria Ann Rider

Placer County Sheriff's detectives have identified the woman whose body was found near Lake Tahoe on May 21 as Victoria Ann Rider, 37, a British citizen who also used the last names Adams and Proctor.

Rider's badly decomposed remains were discovered by a citizen near the intersection of National Avenue and Highway 28 in Tahoe Vista. Identification was made using both dental records and fingerprints.

Rider lived in a rented apartment near where her remains were discovered. She resided there with her 15-year-old daughter, Naomi Riley, and a 24-year-old roommate, Felix Lizarraga. Detectives believe Naomi and Felix left the Tahoe area near the end of March and may have traveled to Mexico. Detectives have been unable to locate Naomi or Felix and are concerned about their welfare.

Detectives are investigating this case as a homicide and would like to speak with anyone who had contact with Victoria, Naomi or Felix during the last several months, or anyone who may know the current location of Felix and Naomi.
